

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2018-05-17

*Djinns, greys all appeared to me on my trip recently, I went to deliver a message and they came out in good numbers, the sight of the dark djinns coming out in not in black form but grey is a sign to me once I had time to ponder on it, that things are really changing on and in this planet and beyond, where there was division, there is now a common goal shared amongst many groups to working and join together, and not continue the eons of years wars, peace on many fronts is now breaking out, and from this persons perspective it is a joy to behold. Races brought up on destroying each other over land, resources and trade are now seeing and feeling the benefits of the discourse that has gone on over the last decade especially, a realization we all want the same things in life, and we can go forward better and quicker with a sharing and caring attitude and demeanor, the truth that has been relayed to many races has hit them heavy as well, the lies ran deep throughout all of them, the usual rhetoric of finger pointing and apportioning blame, has now given way to productive discourse. Having interacted previously during sleep time and from afar, was nice to be up and close to them and I am glad I was able to add my balanced style and demeanor into the discourse, a far cry from the warrior and militaristic types they have often come across, and sadly based a whole race based on their discourse with those dickswinging, ego based clowns, I for one see a bright future for us all.

*Message to the clowns et al, The Trust wants YOU (and you know who you are) to know that the Post Offices have cameras too, and even the NSA can not erase that footage.

*Congo's latest Ebola outbreak has spread to a city of more than 1 million people, a worrying shift as the deadly virus risks traveling more easily in densely populated areas. Medical teams hurried to track down anyone thought to have had contact with infected people as this vast, impoverished nation — a veteran of eight previous Ebola outbreaks — for the first time is fighting the virus in an urban area. Two suspected cases of hemorrhagic fever were reported in the Wangata health zones that include Mbandaka, the capital of northwestern Equateur province. The city is about 150 kilometers (93 miles) from Bikoro, the rural area where the outbreak was announced last week, said Congo's Health Minister Oly Ilunga. One sample proved positive for Ebola, he said. That brings to three the number of confirmed Ebola cases. A total of 44 cases have now been reported, including 23 deaths, according to the World Health Organization. The total includes 20 probable cases and 21 suspected ones.

*ignore media bs of issues between North Korea and South Korea, and possible summit cancellation, it's the portal people fear porn roll out again.

*Guess who is chairman of the council and quartet representative for JP Morgan International? Tony B liar, seems failing at running a country, failing to deliver peace in the middle east, still gets you a high profile and no doubt high paid position in a corrupt bank establishment it seems, to the daughter of one of the JP Morgan associates who blocked transfers recently, we have you clocked on the system - oops

It has come to our attention as we dig deeper into the rabbit hole of how most banks are totally corrupt, bank board members linked Council on Foreign Relations, UN council of Elders and also Trilateral group, so they have inside these banking organizations think tank groups that dictate policy and fiscal matters. Furthermore, some people on the American Banks side are also members of something called the United States Treasury Advisory Agency, which is a PRIVATE advisory committee who apparently have great influence as to the affairs of the United States Treasury Department. Some of these people are NOT even USA Citizens, linked with dual citizens of UK, Israel and also Saudis.

*expect the heat to be turned on FBI and DOJ in near future, things are about to break free in relation to linton/Obama/Comey/Abedin, Weiner and others.

* All bad side off world trade sites..tel Aviv, Netherlands, Indonesia, new zealand, hawaii, Philippines & China

*Lastly on the Faction Front, The Chinese Factions have hired Erik Prince to work on their behalf for what they have SOLD to him as "getting their money back". Unfortunately Mr. Prince is having no luck and was given an ultimatum last weekend that he had until the 24th to complete his task. To be clear, although the Country of China has assets, this in no way is or ever was owned by any of the dragon families.

*As for Ann/Hilary she has realized she probably will never get access to the systems nor be able to steal from the banks anymore so yesterday she decided to try to take hard assets and thought she would start with the BLM. She claimed "ownership" over the BLM and tried to execute on contracts she signed before the election. ie, "Signing over all the inground assets to the Chinese Faction" Ann has found out that she has no authority over the BLM neither does the UN because Trump pulled out of the Paris Treaty/Agreement or whatever they are calling it these days and contrary to popular belief, and as much as they tried to blackmail him, has not been resigned. She may have gotten away with the Uranium to the "Red Dragon" which is the "Russian" we hear so much about (the Red Dragon is NOT chinese. He is half Austrian half Russian), The Red

Dragon, having large amount of debt owed to the Trust has also been relieved of his Uranium also. The Russian Government had no involvement nor benefit from this "sale" of USA Uranium

*Today the Dept of Interiors found out it is currently in the Trust and is being held "In Trust on behalf of the Republic of the United States" as it says in the contract.

*The Trust has been very busy this week setting up new system in relation to banks, their transfer, the blocking of transfers and the implications of such going forward. and went about dealing with the issues created from the old system of mirrored accounts and screens, back doors in all the systems and so they were all deleted and new firewalls created both inside the banks and outside, to prevent further intrusions to banks and peoples accounts.

We duplicated the back systems hi-tech firewalls which also apply to the data cable systems world wide SWIFT/WIRES/IBAN/EFT/ACH all now fall under the new firewall systems, both from the inside and the outside.

The new firewall systems registers the bank officer who is trying to do the input and if fraudulent then their user ID is blocked and a report goes to the agency, in the USA it is the FBI for embezzlement. If there are arrests to occur, that is on the agency.

Further this new firewall also prevents external hacking and fake mirror systems of the Cabal.

No more "fake mirrors", fake skrs etc.

The firewall system also has a mapping system, which we may cover in greater detail in a future show, mapping system appears to be a lot of fun for those who like to do research on rogue elements - oops. So in order to freeze an account or a wire transfer the bank officer or government official MUST have a valid case number. This case number is cross referenced with the agency or police systems, if the badge agent or case number is found invalid then the system will reject.

No more blocking individuals not in alignment with the elite.

In the past this has run rampant globally. As in last month they threatened the President of the USA/Trump, Stating they would take all his assets etc. This type of blackmail is a constant with the factions against politicians. No longer possible under the new system. The gist of this is if you block any transfers of funds, your log in is registered and recorded by the system and you will face the consequences of such actions, no longer can they hide behind firewalls and mirrored screens to play dirty on the financial system.

Wells Fargo, JP Morgan, Bank of America, Citibank and others tried NOT to allow the internal firewall system and tried to work in "manual mode" and took their systems offline. However the firewall had already been installed and forced resets of their systems are taking place today and tomorrow. JP morgan system was completed an hour ago.

*For it's good "cyber protection", the trust has been awarded FULL protection under the Department of Homeland Security Safety Act, One of the issues Kim and her team have been working on is the safety of the people receiving the funds for projects, clowns have threatened all kinds ranging from IRS to arrest for stolen funds, the usual fear porn rhetoric they use to put people off going ahead, well with this "Safety Act" extends to any of it's project owners using "firewall protection" of the trust.

*When people grasp the fact that ISIS, IS, ISIL, hezbollah, Al Queda, IRA, Taliban, Hamas, Sunnis, SHia, Wahhabi, PLO, SS, Blackwater, Xe, Academie, Muslim Brotherhood, Triads, Mafia, Boku Harem, and other African tribes and all other notable so called freedom fighters are all part of their system, bought and paid for, that work against we the people, the realization of this will lead more people to get where we stand, how to understand global incidents and how we have to combat it. We have people blaming Hamas for violence in Palestine, really? do you really think with all their resources, funds and think tanks they wouldn't have eliminated them from Middle East by now? think about it. Since when have they allowed obstacles for their plans to continue for near 40 years like Hamas have, does it make sense? nope, so the opening statement of they are bought and paid for by zionists to cause mayhem whenever something is convenient for them to do so. Like media distraction pieces.

*Well I did 2 extra shows in the past week and nearly did a third, thankfully for the OYM lads their stated guest turned up just in time, The monday show on Liffey Sound with Mick O'Connell was an interesting show, with many aspects and topics covered, particularly the ET narrative. I do enjoy the ET side of things as it is relevant to what is going on in every day life, but I hope not to be just defined or labelled on the ET stuff as we have so much more we do and can cover in our shows, the thing is sometimes listeners can switch off if all the talk is about ET's and I am aware of that, too many just joining or new to alt media do struggle with the ET Narrative. The 2nd show for those that have heard it, got some of our listeners kind of annoyed, and I do understand where they are coming from, sometimes I will give people like that some rope, that guy pretty much brought his own. I took part in a roundtable last year and it was a cool experience, getting opinions from others in the community, Of course the main topic that caused some irritation was the discussion on roundtable of when or what is disclosure, and if information is disclosure or not. Disclosure to some is only validated if you write a book, attend a conference or do videos, or go on Ancient Aliens oh dear, be an ex cia, ex fbi or ex of some other agency or be a super soldier, or even worse be an ex politician like Simon Parkes. To some people and particular the guy in the roundtable, no amount of proof is enough and yet strangely contradicted himself twice by saying Bob Lazaar gave evidence and Billy Maier of all people and stated on the show their information was valid, he then extolled the virtues of Leo Zagami oh dear, then made a statement that disclosure wont happen. For him no it will never happen, as if he cant see disclosure has already happened, and is stuck in a box of his own making. Those people will never see or believe anything, as their boxes of weakness and fear over comes them so much, they choose not to hear information when it becomes available, Bob Lazaar and Billy Maier were over 20 years ago, perhaps in 20 years time that guy will look back on what I and others have told him and believe, or perhaps not, maybe it wasn't the disclosure issue getting in his way at all, and just maybe the numerous listeners comments of his unbalanced ego is correct, either way, maybe he is a nice guy who just struggles with new information and not yet processed it, who knows, but I hope he listens to what he said on that show again, it may give him pointers. This show never tells you to follow anyone but yourself, do your own research, truth comes from within always did. Another issue that particular guest stated is the internet is all clean, oh dear, after that statement I decided it was a waste of my energy interacting with somebody who either clearly gets nothing or worst given his connections and the fact he shut his blog down in 2011 only to return in 4 years later - erm its that loop again, makes me suspicious. Like I said in the show, yet again it appears I am the only one being challenged in the community, the real question is why? I think we by now know the answer. The more I end up on other shows the more we find out where people are at in their learning curve, I know some of you where a bit taken aback by some of the names that came up on the two shows, and thinking hmm thats 3-5 years ago knowledge, perhaps it will make some realize we kind of get spoiled in some ways with the insights and knowledge of this show.

*The Nxium story which we ran back in August last year, well court documents yesterday filed in NY against Keith Raniere and Alison Mack for sex trafficking, forced labor and other crimes, and investigations are now digging into 90 companies affiliated with Nxium, this will lead to Clara and Sara Bronfman, Clintons, Obama, Goldie Hawn, Epstein crew and also Necker Island and Richard Branson, Rainbow Cultural Gardens to name but a few. Could and should get interesting now.

*A big internet bust up involving over promoted alt media figures this week, seems Q thinks Alex Jones, Jerome Corsi and Hagmann are all shills, and vice versa. Jones having spent 12-18 months promoting all things Trump now decides he isn't buying him now. Some in fact many people still follow Jones despite all evidence against him, each to their own I suppose, but you dont get into Bohemian Grove without an invite, the man is cointelpro, and has spent most of his shows ramping up people to act violently, citing we must fight NWO and corporate entities, whilst collecting $3M a year in advertising from same corporate entities. Do you really think corporate entities would give so much to Jones if they thought he would lead the public into eliminating the NWO? One thing that has gone unnoticed over the last 12 months alt media as these youtubers, various ex agency people and also various groups with Intelligence in their names, along with Q anons of which i'm unsure of how many of them exist or are real, is how the group who where intelligence agents directly or ex agents or military top brass called Veterans Today, suddenly they have gone into the background, also people like George Webb who came in in a blaze of publicity but who was then exposed by this show and others for working with or linked to Mossad, which he subsequently admitted. This is a common theme in alt media where they come and then phase out if heat is turned on them in any way, only to return later appearing different in terms of looks and also narrative. Wilcock classic example, him and corey had heat turned on them last year and almost silence from them since.

*Another point came up during that show is what would it take to be bought out, it is an interesting topic and glad it came up, as to me far too many people in humanity have sold out, not only in this time period, but many previously also. The way I see it is the 2 biggest issues humanity faces, is fear and seducement, far too easily far too many buckle under the pressure of those two control systems. I have made my stance quite clear and I will not be swayed by anything outside of restoring this planet to operate in a better way for the benefit of all, it's the top and bottom line for me, have we been offered sums to walk away? yep, did we take it? nope, Kim has been offered vast sums to walk away and hand over the keys and codes, told them where to stick it and doubled the resolve to go forward and end their reign of terror. But the problem throughout history is too many have gone weak and sold out on the promise of wealth, fame, land, resources and titles (King Julius the latest it seems - until proven otherwise and evidence requested was not forthcoming), it happens on all levels of society not just the upper echelons, cops, judges, social workers, politicians, bank clerks I could go on and on, given a little extra or pay raise and they turn their backs on what is going on, my family back in UK all want me to quit and get on with and have some sort of a life, my response is not everyone can keep living the lie and turning their eyes and ears away, and also their backs away from this cesspool of filth perpetrating our world, some of us have to take up the fight and that is my choice, but if the people got rid of fear and the lure of seducement, with the help of many more like minded people, we could end this nonsense a lot sooner.

* Difficulty of following todays news and appointments in regards to the current administration in America. A number of appointments does not augur too well due to various links and connections in the past of appointees. The reality is currently is we do not have viable options from the general public to go into those roles, yes we have some to step in to the pit of filth, but would be highly inexperienced operating in that field, as things are now. Threats would be constant and also severe, and reality is too few have stepped up in what is a crucial time for us all. The old saying you want change, well be change can and does apply here, but when you offset it against a backdrop of 70 years of systematic control systems, dumbing down education, a policy of paying for all the best people in respective fields instead of training your own people, a policy of making many Americans sick and dependant on drugs, that aspect in particular has to change where thought process of minor scrape or cold, leads to American raiding the pharmacies for cure alls, it hasn't worked in the past and so how do we expect it to work now? change the mindset, drugs are the last option, not the first. So, what we are left with is a bunch of criminals potentially fixing a criminal system, can it work? yes, should we fully trust them? no, no way should we ever trust politicians 100% to do the right thing, why? because they are more controlled than we are, lower level puppets who are finding out more of the real truth now in past 12 months, than they did in the whole of their lifetimes, but then they think hmmm, this draining the swamp might expose what I have done, an awkward conundrum is it not? depending on the approach of those who have highlighted their demeanours and depth of it, would likely determine how they operate going forward. People like Hitler, Obama, Bushes and Cheney are hardly going to just give up and hand themselves over are they? their crimes are way too deep on public acceptance level, but what if they all know they will be exposed and so they are allowed to rectify their stances for a period of time, whilst investigations and collection of data on the whole system is underway? Cheney of course is of particular interest, he is way beyond the snarling face behind the Bush regime, Darth Vader himself on a soul level hasn't been too nice for a long time, and like other old soul Kissinger, those 2 in particular are heavy orchestrators of the dark arts, most of the rest are all puppets to be thrown under the bus. Cheney still in hiding in his 8 story underground bunkers, whilst he sends mercs out to do the dirty work, at which point when a number of mercs have been taken out and exposed, do the same mercs turn on who keeps getting their buddies killed, and must wonder when their days is due also, message to them folks I know your sole goal is you will do any job which pays the most, it is your forte, but you must all now begin to realize these paymasters have little to no interest in your well being, otherwise they wouldnt be sending you into stupid missions, many of which have left your buddies dead, isn't it time you all make the paymasters do their own dirty work? Same applies in the military, if top brass want war, send them into battle and leave our men, women and children out of it, I guarantee war would end overnight if Generals, Bushes, Kerry's both of which have dubious records in military and John I staged fake POW McCain, send all them and their families into battle, now wouldn't that make good tv, watching cowards and clowns slug it out.

*Trump and Israel, a hot topic of debate out on the pages around the internet, on msm and also in private by myself and close associates. There are 2 possibilities and one looks more prevalent than the other as it stands. Whilst our team has had direct contact with Trump we are not able to dictate policy more than the other factions chipping away at him. Privately and on some shows I have shown deep concern with Trump, his family and associates links with not Isreal, but the Zionists, two very different entities, one a jewish people who have been used as pawns and sacrificed in great numbers, and other a political ideology operating with zero compassion for anything, including Jews, but themselves and their agenda. These people and some are not, have been thrown out of over 106 countries in last 2000 years not because of being anti semite or anti jew, semite term was introduced in 1800, and the term jew was 1700's, the letter J did not start until 14 century, so clearly these people were known by and as something else. Here is an entry from a book in 1800's In the racialist classifications of Carleton S. Coon, the Semitic peoples were considered to be members of the Caucasian race, not dissimilar in appearance to the neighbouring Indo-European, Northwest Caucasian, and Kartvelian-speaking peoples of the region, those unfamiliar Kartvelian is the language of the country Georgia aka Russian, DNA study also supports this theory that these people came from Southern Russia, hence the term Khazarian like Kazakhstan, or Ashkenazi which was predominantly native of Ukraine, so the history of these people and how they have been used as pawns, is very distorted and frankly very nasty what they have done to them, the chosen ones indeed, same title as Annunaki who also frequented same region now known as Israel.

*Closed minds system and creating your own boxes in life
