*RV description, so what is the RV, a collection of currencies collected around the world, most of them stolen loot out of invaded countries or printed out by the Rothschilds owned printing company called De La Rue, that would essentially be revalued at X times the current valuation and other currencies would be devalued at X times the current rate. For example if the RV had validity and went ahead, the talk was the $ would be devalued by between 50-80%, Zims, dong and dinars which were held in vast quantities by the cabal after they looted those countries would increase by 3-10 times their current value. Most top military, mercenary groups, so called terrorist groups, politicians and media giants were paid in dinars not dollars on the promise each note would pay out 3 to 10 times its current value, and so making them all multi millionaires overnight, this is what is stopping the authorities moving as they all want their payouts, except nobody appears to have gotten through their single brain cell thinking and told them a. its not happening b. you have been duped and c. current banking system cant handle influx of that kind and would totally collapse all banks globally within 5 minutes of it being banked. To pull off the RV requires a down payment that is larger than all the money spent by everyone in the last 500 years or more, and assets to back it that would require a number of Earths not just this one to support it, now ask yourselves is that scenario eminently possible? This is the stark reality of what people are promoting on the internet. So what was the RV goal? The Plan to eliminate America as the major role player started back in the 70's and goal was to financially cripple the country, weaken and then eliminate the dollar, or so it has a value of a peso, remove the guns from the people, declare many terrorists and load into FEMA camps and reduce 85% of other countries who are trading with the dollar into oblivion, why do you think the US military sold all their equipment to the Asian faction and are now leasing it back? for those that are new, I mean every plane, ship, weapons or missile belonging to the USA inc military, (for those new our current military does not belong to America, does not operate for and by America either, Rothschilds and Jesuit puppets, with a heavy leaning to the Zionists thrown in) so how was it done, well with Rothschilds and minions emptying all the American and govt bank accounts ably supported by the Fed, there has been no money to run the country since November 2016 and they have been selling stuff off and getting DOD credit vouchers since, all of that military hardware was paid for by the people, was sold to the Asian faction, all of it, work is still underway to get it all back. The RV was a bank, corporate and cabal bail out to kick start not humanitarian programs, but to start the 90% humanity genocide programs, pure and simple and anyone who thinks different at this stage with all the information that is available, is either beyond stupid bordering on retarded, a rothschilds agent or a cabal puppet, there is no other category, so take your pick, the RV was a harvesting program, pure and simple, but people fell for it for seducement purposes, a promise of free money, and we have all fell for that at some stage particularly in times of economic downturn, but it is short term gain and long term pain, what is required now for first time ever is short term pain and long term gain, enough of the seductions, false promises, of RV's, PPP's, ET packages, Nesara/Gesara, OPPT birth certificate pay outs it was all illusion designed to string us all along whilst they raped and pillaged, due to the Trust their ability to do any of the above has been drastically reduced and edging towards being eliminated altogether.

*Un threats were being issued to many govt officials within the UN assembly, it was not unexpected by many of the attendees and that is a sign of progress, as they know who the real enemy is now, all in your face, makes all the vast quantity of time Kim and team have put in to teach these people of what is really going on on this planet, most couldn't believe it at first and now they do, some who rejected us last year are now returning as they have finally seen it all for themselves.

*one high level and prominent govt employee has been charged with possible high level treason and is currently walking around with an ankle bracelet, one suspects it will become very clear who, although there was reference in last weeks show, in the coming days, it will become obvious. no it is not RR that is an extra issue.

*Fed raised rates yesterday in an attempt to crash market by 500 points today, cabal have put options on it dropping and ready to cash in, this would increase panic on banks and lead to chaos next week with budget looming. We have warned often enough these clowns are here to financially assassinate this country and actions must be swift and brutal to deal with the problem, there is no more warnings as there is no more time, go forward with pay with the solutions provided or react with no pay and watch the country and it's people suffer. I can now say their plan failed, another one they lost on, time for Trump et al to deal with the Fed once and for all, and its cash collection subsidiary the IRS. Given the Fed has no license after it was revoked and yet they still play games by increasing rates to get money for their fraudulent scumbags on Wall Street, we are looking into a plan of every time they raise rates, we raise the Fed's interest by treble or more on the debt they owe to the trust.

* The OCC (OFFICE OF THE COMPTROLLER OF CURRENCY)is currently investigating all the banks as the fraud and corruption can no longer be hidden, and will dealt with accordingly.

*Norfolk Virginia cabal crew ran by the SSp has been accessing all the treasury files and accounts and has been transferring data over to the Chinese elements. all security codes and policies are now being rewritten.

*Trump blaming china for interfering with up and coming elections should not be taken literally, it has nothing to do with China the country, it's people or the govt, and everything to do with Chinese Elders, Rothillians and Dragon groups employing an army of hackers out of Asia to hack into everything not just the trust and here is why

*Security certificates, govts, agencies, military and pentagon depts completely unaware at the depth of it, these are in phones, computers, laptops, ipads, cars, planes, boats, trains anything that has a motherboard or chip, some will be familiar with verisign for credit or debit card transactions you name it. *crashing tesla or electric cars to keep the oil cars going

*The Government has approached the Trustee to address the income tax issue, changing our tax structure so that only Social Security and spending taxes will be in place soon. Current analysis is being done to see the best way to execute this. The IRS will be moved out if Puerto Rico and back into the United States They have also asked Kim to address the Student Loan Debts and other debt issues.

*The Trustee believes the USA will be completely self sustaining with no other foreign bodies or corporations having any say or control within the next 3 to 5 years.

*Word on the street is October 3rd will be new D day, what that entails we will see *several dozen countries now have approached the Trust for us to work with them solely, and they have a desire to end the old banking system and humanity terrorising groups, like UN, IMF and World bank plus the Rothschilds conglomerate, they now see a new way to be and are acting on it, the pace of change is quickening.

*The issue of where peoples energy goes will be important now and going forward, and you should use yours wisely. Many people focus on the drama of the political circles and I do get that, to me that is old news, like a 4 year loop. Look at the drama of McCabe, Rosenstein, Mueller, Comey et al, look at how long that investigation charade has taken, how many hours of energy everyone has put into that, thousands of hours of portal people rhetoric, $100M's poured into it, to find out what we in THI already knew before it all started? think about it? yes, I will get proven right on many things that has been said, but it is not about me being right in the scheme of things, it is about the world being righted, and politics is a tiny aspect of that in the scheme of things, far tinier than most people imagine. This is why we need a new type of govt, 18 months of toing and froing theatrical style bs'ery has helped no one, least of all the people. The current govt mode of operation is incapable of making any rational, well reasoned, common sense decisions on behalf of we the people, it is just not designed that way, it is all controlled from way higher up than the President, people really need to understand that. This movement is not about ending the govt or one party, it is about stripping away the barriers preventing the govt operating in a way of for and by the people, and all of you have a responsibility and duty to participate in that, it is your life they are wrecking, your children's futures they are destroying, and our species chances of ever progressing beyond this meat suit, limitation, mind control program. It is fine to a point of following it to understand what has been done, but all who have listened to THI from the beginning by now should be fully averse of the machinations of govt, so FISA documents or other documents telling you what you already know, serves no purpose for us whatsoever, you already know most if not all are corrupt or corrupted, so what difference will another document make? how much proof do you really need? proof on top of proof on top of proof is all delaying tactics and why I called out Q last week, I read out the list of tick tock names on a show over 12 months ago, and it is nice in a small way seeing them ticked off that list, but overall it is not getting to the root of the problem. We have enough proof on all of them, Kim has provided millions of pages of documents on all levels of corruption, now is the time to act on it, energy needs to go into actions, not finding proof on top of proof of what we already know, whilst all distracted on political theater, people who don't do the real work on themselves will always seek out the distractions be it politics, sport or religion, all of it designed to deflect away from what is real, I hope people begin to grasp that by now, no one is coming to save you, be it Trump, govts, ET's, Jesus or Allah only you save you and hopefully you save others as well.

*what would sovereignty bring to america? fed/irs. 3/4/5 letter oversight, taxes reduced, constitution, bill of rights, ending of bar system return to natural or common law, american govt, our own currency, keep our own resources, wars would ceased and we the people funding it, everything and everyone accountable, financial transparency, no more too big to fail, immunity, above the law, Crown rule end, real independence. end of deep state, end of SSp, disclosures abound but not necessarily et or religion that will be a later date, too sensitive and too damaging. Funding for projects and humanitarian issue would not be blocked. end of banking tyranny, end of sacrificing sons and daughters, beginning of the end of old technology like oil, nuclear, gas or coal and phasing in of new cleaner technology, advancements in medical fields, return to entrepreneurs with fresh ideas and driven hopefully in improving humanity and not just their bank balance, end of corporate control, end of gmos, chemtrails, water poisoning, nutrient and vitamin deficient food, end of dumbing down in schools, end of vaccine issue, beginning of the end of psychopaths running the world, so when you ask what sovereignty means there is your answer, except I left out one key component - YOU - sovereignty means YOU have a personal responsibility for the first time in your lives, to not only participate in improving your world, but everyone elses as well, that is sovereignty, everyone chipping to improve all aspects of life, everyones workload will increase exponentially, as we have much to clean up, improve or delete, the improving of ourselves and clean up of ourselves is the most essential part.

* In political and social sciences, communism (from Latin communis, "common, universal")^{[1][2]} is the philosophical, social, political, and economic ideology and movement whose ultimate goal is the establishment of the communist society, which is a socioeconomic order structured upon the common ownership of the means of production and the absence of social classes, money and the state. Communism includes a variety of schools of thought, which broadly include Marxism and anarchism (anarcho-communism), as well as the political ideologies grouped around both. All of these share the analysis that the current order of society stems from its economic system, capitalism; that in this system there are two major social classes; that conflict between these two classes is the root of all problems in society; and that this situation will ultimately be resolved through a social revolution. The two classes are the working class—who must work to survive and who make up the majority within society—and the capitalist class—a minority who derives profit from employing the working class through private ownership of the means of production. The revolution will put the working class in power and in turn establish social ownership of the means of production, which according to this analysis is the primary element in the transformation of society towards communism. Critics of communism can be roughly divided into those concerning themselves with the practical aspects of 20th century communist states and those concerning themselves with communist principles and theory. The term "communism" was first coined and defined in its modern definition by the French philosopher and writer Victor d'Hupay. In his 1777 book Projet de communauté philosophe, d'Hupay pushes the philosophy of the Enlightenment to principles which he lived up to during most of his life in his bastide of Fuveau (Provence). This book can be seen as the cornerstone of communist philosophy as d'Hupay defines this lifestyle as a "commune" and advises to "share all economic and material products between inhabitants of the commune, so that all may benefit from everybody's work". Communist thought has also been traced back to the works of the 16th-century English writer Thomas More. In his treatise Utopia (1516), More portrayed a society based on common ownership of property, whose rulers administered it through the application of reason. You do all realize that the current mode of Communism was introduced by the Khazarian Jews don't you? and has nothing to do with Russia or China. If you dont understand or know that listen to my series From russia with love part 1 and 2, and you will gain a greater perspective. Some will say fascism is the worst form of govt, but it depends on who is designated for extermination does it not? reality is fascism is a speedy death program, whilst all other govt ideologies are a slow death program.

*Theresa may says the cabinet is behind the Brexit plan, how clever is a wooden furniture item is that, to understand the stalling tactics of political bs'ery 1540s, "secret storehouse, treasure chamber; case for valuables," from Middle French cabinet "small room" (16c.), diminutive of Old French cabane "cabin" (see cabin); perhaps influenced by (or rather, from) Italian gabbinetto, diminutive of gabbia, from Latin cavea "stall, stoop, cage, den for animals" (see cave (n.)). Meaning "case for safe-keeping" (of papers, liquor, etc.) is from 1540s, gradually shading to mean a piece of furniture that does this. Sense of "private room where advisers meet" (c. 1600) led to modern political meaning "an executive council"

*A Swedish university is investigating a professor for “anti-feminism” and “transphobia” after he said there are biological differences between men and women. He is being urged to retract his comments. The professor, Germund Hesslow, who works in neurophysiology at Lund University, was accused by a student of making “transphobic” and “anti-feminist” statements in a lecture — but he has refused to back down. During his course on ‘Heritage and Environment’ at the leading academic institution, Hesslow cited empirical research which supports the idea that there are differences between men and women which are “biologically founded” and therefore genders cannot be regarded as “social constructs alone”. The complainant suggested that Hesslow’s comments were at odds with the Swedish “value base” (value base hmm bit like normal that, who decides, govt or us?— a concept which requires all schools in Sweden to adhere to a common ethical policy, which includes upholding values like egalitarianism, individual freedom and equality of the sexes. All this as a Swedish church pushes for a neutral gender to be applied to Jesus. Really, its all wells the fargo to me. A bunch of stupid people with far too much time on their hands coming up with fancy words and descriptions like transphobic, asexual, metrosexual and other banal control system words under the banner of political correctness. I will tell you what is correct vagina = woman, penis equals man, it is just that simple, if a man wants to play with another man fine, woman wants to play with another woman fine, but why do you need a control system labels, to qualify what you do in your own homes or bedrooms? Put it this way, if I decided to place a camera in your bedrooms, most would rightly complain of an invasion of privacy, and yet people are walking around telling the world what type of sex they prefer in their bedrooms, you cant have it both ways. This labeling is costing an absolute fortune in time and resources, what you do in privacy of your own homes is your business, unless you choose to video it for others to watch, again that is your choice. Labels are external version of you, real version is the internal version, for petes sake remember that. Who are you? I am me. I am not left or right politically, handed or brain hemisphere, I am not defined by what job I do, or what fake astrological sign I was born under, what sexuality I prefer is between me and those I choose to sleep with, and is nobodies business never mind what label. I am not defined by religion, what country I was born in, or currently reside in, I am not defined by material wealth or my bank balance, I would sooner be defined by moral actions taken, being heart centered, caring, sharing, compassionate and standing in defense of others who cant defend themselves, put simply I am, and that is all that matters and ultimately it is about what love you give, the love you receive and the love you leave.

*The issue of leaders and followers came up this week and something I felt we should touch on to a wider audience. Some don't like the term followers, but right through history there has always been followers. The tribal groups had a chief or leader and his or her object was to develop and empower their people and create new leaders for the progression of the group, currently all leaders disempower their group and so everything is ass backwards. The largest empire ever on this planet that was not done by conquest but by teaching it was the URS/Rus/Slavonic Ayrans empire that was what is now known as Russia, encompassed 2/3rd's of Europe, China, parts of India, Pakistan, Afghanistan, Iran (land of the ayran and Iraq with countries in between, all done by teaching people to think, act and operate in a better way in alignment with all, and not replicate the savagery exhibited by those out of the original garden of eden in India of human sacrifice and worshipping the dark forces entity known as the Kali- ma, the dark mother. All those people followed the path laid out and it was bringing peace to the planet, so there is nothing wrong with following as such, not all can be leaders, and when there is too many leaders, it often leads to squabbling over who is the most important. The being known as Jesus whose real name was Radomir, he was a Rus, all the same teachings as the books attributed to the name Jesus, but it said don't follow me did it not, and what he is referring to by me is, is you are not following the person, but the teachings are the important aspect, big difference. That is the empowering aspect, what is not empowering is people saying they are following Jesus the man, I hear people say I am good as I follow Jesus and I read all his books, A: Jesus never wrote any books and there was no letter J until the 1400's B: if Jesus wrote the Texas Chainsaw Massacre book would you become a homicidal maniac? so it is not about the who wrote or who was quoted in the books, but how you choose to go on a certain path, it has nothing to do with Jesus and everything to do with you, same applies to this show and what I have said, I showed a path of betterment in many aspects of life, the fact you chose to walk it, is all down to you not me. Like people saying I go to church and my church does good things, NO, the people in the church does good things actually, all about the people not the books or the buildings, this is where humanity fails, all tributes are being given out as external to themselves, when it is they who are doing the good actions, please stop doing that you are giving away your energy and life force to entities and buildings that operate on that premise. Pray within not to external cloud sitting judgement man, source is within you it is not external, wishing and hoping is external, manifest and creating starts internally, do you think Trump started the truth and exposing movement, did he heck, you did, all of you, when a threshold of around 10-12% is reached of what is requested, it manifests, you all demanded the truth and so now you are getting it. So once you all recognize the fact that little you or little me is far more powerful than you have given yourselves credit for, is it not time you used that power in a non violent, non destructive more productive manner? Time the higher universal man aka hu -man kicked into gear is it not?
