

THI-SHOW TRANSCRIPT 2019-01-10

Threats were issued against Kim and the team again on Monday. Our ambassador alone was threatened 16 times Monday morning.

Rothschild's are claiming the money sent by Kim to keep government afloat was coming from them, haha Roths you have never sent this country anything, only stolen from it.

Pelosi was caught sneaking in a clause into the reformed spending bill for trn's, and that is why the government remains closed, Pelosi and her gang of non american interests attempting to hijack the country further.

New system failed Tuesday. Several hacking attempts made again - it failed, RV release the next day - it failed.

They have now resorted to putting free floating bots into the banking system, to stop MWHT releasing funds to the public, so on the one hand they say the release of their funds will be for the public and humanitarian programs, and on the other hand they have spent vast resources over the past two years to prevent public funds coming out for humanitarian programs. Clearly the two don't add up, surely if you were humanitarian you wouldn't care where the money is coming from, only that it helps humanity, but these people are not interested in humanity, for one split second.

President Trump announced Thursday that he will cancel his "very important trip" to Davos, Switzerland, for the World Economic Forum in light of the partial government shutdown over border wall funding.

Cast out the bait and watch them hang on it is a must observe tactic.

I warned that much wouldn't make sense this month and possibly beyond in the December 27th show, so it is disappointing seeing some people over react to things Trump did or didn't say. Many of you are reacting to YT video and clickbait headline grabbers of mass arrests (yes saw the video of that woman and 50 arrests this week, more bs), martial law and other forecasts of doom and diversion. Your choice to follow who you wish, but how many times will you continue to follow people who put out salacious headlines that prove time and time again that A: they have no direct intel to support their claims and b: they are bullshitting you, it's like the RV promises on a weekly or biweekly scale, it all fails. I have repeatedly said everything is on a knife edge and super sensitive now, so no one with any common sense with give out details of what is happening currently, because if you the listener know, then the enemies will know, I will repeat again this is a war folks, and you are the beneficiaries of winning that war, you will be the victims if we don't. I get you all want to know the ins and outs of a ducks arse, I have been on your side of the information stream for far longer than I have been doing radio shows, so I do know, but to whose benefit does the releasing of sensitive information gain the most? you? if so what can you do with that information that will affect change? not as much as the opposition can do with it, I can tell you. So, Trump didn't follow the alt media and YT script writers narrative, so that means he is bs, NO, just reverse it. People literally have no idea the pressures, threats, skullduggery and general nastiness going on behind the scenes currently, it's all out war, and what this show gives you is a tiny peak into that realm, when safe to do so, I will never ever compromise a plan, operations or people engaged in this fight, everything is carefully stated that protects the movement. Trump whether he is good, bad or indifferent is working within an environment of vipers, people littered with service to self attitudes, agenda driven and the criminal elite fighting hard to protect their status, and also cover up their litany of crimes. How do you expect anyone or anything to work properly within that environment? How can he say within the public arena with the venomous vipers known as portal people waiting in the wings? Trump should mention the Trust some say, do you not think we have a large enough target on our backs, without adding the higher profile? think about it. Has he referenced us yes, several times, including a tip of the hat in Tuesdays speech, you will not find it though, as it is said in code, some have asked me for that code this week, thats not good thinking is it, if you know the code, so will the enemies. Trump cannot take a dump these days without interference by the non humanity agents, he can't say what he would like to say in the glare of the fake media, and yet people think he should just blurb out intentions, plans, operations in a war setting? come on think better than that. Our show has proven we have the correct details on many subjects time and time again, so all who listen to this show are ahead of the game with regards to information, that is not to discount others information in any way, but there are legions of people now who are just speculating, passing opinions on MSM pieces, grabbing one headline and making  $2+2 = 5$ , we in this group don't need those or their distractions at this time, we need to focus on solutions, ourselves and how we interact with each other, the alt media we all loved is awash with noise, our group doesn't need noise, we need calm and understanding.

H.R.25 — 116th Congress (2019-2020) To promote freedom, fairness, and economic opportunity by repealing the income tax and other taxes, abolishing the Internal Revenue Service, and enacting a national sales tax to be administered primarily by the States. That is what the team has been working on since August/September, finally now it has a platform, will it pass the voting system?, time will tell. But every American will know that those who vote against it are working for the cabal, no ifs or buts, they are. They are voting to protect the elite system ran by the Rothschilds, is that what everyone wants? I am going to make a call out to all in the alt media or wider circles to support and highlight this bill. We must raise public awareness on this item here in America, those that don't choose to highlight it on their page, shows, YT or blogs once aware, are not working for we the people. Who wouldn't want to not pay bogus taxes, these taxes are the very funds that are being used against us, via black budget stuff, buying up all kinds of businesses, creating fake foundations to funnel money, that money belongs to Americans if it is to be dispersed, and yet not one cent of it since 1934 has been given back to American people. You often hear if you don't pay your taxes you wont get any services, really, have you not noticed the levels of services going down over last 2 decades never mind your whole lifetime, so that agency script rhetoric doesn't work, well shouldn't work. We have spent many months upon request for Tax Reform and eliminating I will repeat the illegal (as not part of the constitution, which they cant deny publically as it's not in place, as they would have to admit the real facts that the constitution everyone cites was ended in 1871) and is not a tax at all, but a voluntary tribute to The Crown in the City of London, which is nothing to do with the Queen, London or the UK, and everything to do with the square mile separate principality located in the City of London ran by The Rothschild's family, essentially a square mile of pirates, except they commit acts of piracy on the whole planet. This gist of the plan, is to remove the IRS which is not a tax office but a Trust group operating via The Federal Reserve for and by The Crown from Puerto Rico, back onto the American mainland and put it back into the real Tax office, that was deleted from history in 1930's known as the Tax and Revenue Service, only the top end criminals will lose their jobs in this transfer. It will eliminate all tax on your wages entirely, implement a 10% spending tax, eliminate all Fed taxes that are on your property taxes, home, car, flood and other vehicles insurance bills, cable and phone bills and some other bills, so it will benefit all people. In the tax cuts Trump initiated a 21% tax on all millionaire shareholders operating under the banner of a Foundation, this will raise further funds for The Treasury, which will be the real one, not the 5-6 other Treasury shell companies that have existed for too long. As America has not been receiving any benefits from income taxes, nothing will be lost and everything will be gained, and the taxes generated will go to America, not the pirates of Fed Reserve or The Crown. The Trust have worked out within 3-5 years America will become self sufficient and not require the Trust input further, America will not deliberately run out of funds each year via the budget, which was deliberately designed that way, as it will no longer have to deliberately borrow from the Federal Reserve each year, at a cost of 10% per dollar borrowed. This is what has been going on folks and it is time we all got behind it, not just Americans, because the Fed charges every country who has to use dollars, around 186 countries I believe, 10% for every dollar they need as well, so most countries will benefit from this change of action. For those that worry they won't get their refund and so don't want to change it, 1. please stop thinking of yourself, this is an all inclusive transition, not just you and 2. nobody will lose their refunds, nobody 3. many will have their debts to the IRS deleted, re assessed or restructured 4. it will end IRS harassment and garnishing wages. I request all who listen get this portion out to all alt media, their friends and family, and more importantly let their senators know, tell them you vote against it, and we know you are working for the criminal elites and we will force you out of office, this is not about party politics, this is about every American and other country using dollars, it is about ending a corrupt system.

*The age of not meeting everybody, as bars, shops all close and the convenience factor of supermarket giants and even more convenience factor of online shopping via Amazon takes hold, convenience shopping will be our own demise. As more shop online, more business will close, it is not just shops either, cleaners, security and police staffing, public transport and so many more becomes affected in a domino style way, what happens if all those small businesses and jobs go? Who will buy their products? Will the likes of Amazon replace the missing jobs and empty shopping centers? no, empty shopping centers leads to vandalism and decay, leads to loss of taxes to the county, meaning we get less services, the knock on effect is huge. Will Amazon care? no, they are running a program of harvesting up all businesses and into control of The Order, so they own everything, no entrepreneurs, no start up businesses, just them, is their plan. They can make plans all they like, but do we have to carry them out? Get off the computer and go out and buy from your local shops, they are your life blood and also is another way you end their system, and an example of you being the change, not just asking for it

*Can Trump take on all 5 factions in one go? yes and no, it depends if Trump is not ran by a faction himself really doesn't it. But lets run both scenarios, I will repeat again for hard of hearing, these are scenarios only. Lets say Trump is a faction and hypothetically say Zionist faction, then that faction will expose the other four, Asian, Nazi, Jesuit and Secret Society groups. many are beginning to see this play out in the alt media, groups like Abel Danger, george Webb, Veterans Today, they will all expose the other 4 factions in their narrative, but obviously miss their own faction out of the equation, this leads some to think that these groups are on our side, not exactly, but at this point is still favorable to us all, as the exposures and disclosures gives many a deeper picture of what has gone on, and what is currently playing out. So, if Trump is playing for a faction and he crashes the other 4 then fine, 4 will be eliminated, but then we would be in a stronger position to eliminate the final faction. At that point we will have also garnered more support from the losing 4 factions, which is currently been happening a lot over last 12-18 months anyway. So, even if Trump is working for a faction or not, we will make heavy gains for the 6th faction we the people. If Trump is not working for a faction, then his task is even harder, as he has little to no support within office, many generals are working directly for the factions, many heads of depts, agencies etc are also working for the factions, justice dept was and has been rebalanced over the past 12 months. So you all see the difficulties now of the problems we face of who is who, who is aligned with who, do the who people actually know what is real or not, do they have real knowledge or just been fed not a diet but a whole feast of bs'ery their whole working lives, have some unlearned the lies? who can Trump trust? it is a far detailed process than most people can imagine, there is a whole nest of snakes and venomous critters within the circle of politics, and not just in this country, but all of them. A case of do not blame the government but blame whichever faction or dragon group that is running it. One must also take into account the strategy and propaganda playing out currently within these circles also, reality is far away from what is presented in alt media blogs, tweets or MSM, it will not make much sense to most people currently, it is designed that way, this is a war and if you all know, they will know also and counteract it.

Kosovo is heavily supported by USA and Britain to have their own army. This provoked a response and it is all ( as always) created by the Britain to draw in Russia and to cause war with Russia. Speculations are that Americans openly declared that Kosovo belongs to them and they decide what happens; they illegally entered into Serbian part of Kosovo heavily armed and they are preparing to take over the northern Kosovo which will almost inevitably cause armed response. Currently they are blackmailing Serbia to cut off ties with Russia otherwise not only they will lose northern Kosovo but southern Serbia too. Apparently, Kosovan media declared that Trump sent a very strong letter supporting Kosovo and threatening Serbia with bombing; Kosovo demanded that USA bombs Serbia again. I suppose these are the factions that are meddling against Trump and clinging on the hope that they can regain influence and power. This is somewhat contradictory to pulling troops out of Syria etc. NATO which is synonym for USA has armed Kosovan Albanians already. They are also conducting military exercises within the Bondstill base for invading Serbian part of the province. Russian president Putin confirmed visit to Serbia at the beginning of January and offered full army support to defend Kosovo. Kosovo is ever burning ember easy to ignite so they keep it alive, if you like. This is very worrying. There are plenty of so-called nationalists on both sides that will not hesitate to get arms into their hands. Tito during his era build so called “underground city” which is a military base with military airport and direct underground runaway to the Adriatic Sea. Perhaps even further. No one knows exactly how far tunnelling stretches. Town where I grew up also had one underground base with long runaways and there were many others in former Yugoslavia, hence very few planes were hit ( mainly in combat) during the last war. NATO needs this “city”; they already have Montenegro and Greece and Macedonia (FRY Macedonia which by the way was never part of Greece, that is Greek Macedonia) and Bulgaria etc. See where this is going? There is also a rumour that Kosovo is a portal from which unimaginable distance could be achieved due to some magnetic field. Not sure about this. However, I did hear from Albanian people when I was interpreting that Kosovo was so rich with uranium and some other rare minerals (tungsten) that you could see sparkles when you sit in the garden at night. Putin is threatening action because of Kosovo; Serbia is threatening action; and trust me there are enough nationalists that would not hesitate to pull the trigger. All tense and the world attention lie elsewhere. Typical.

*MASS ARRESTS NOTHING CHANGES? So the question arose this week is what happens if there are mass arrests and nothing changes from a public perspective? well it can be looked at in a few ways, can it be because the factions are heavily ensconced within politics and far deeper than most realize? that's not a possibility but a probability. Now when something is removed, something has to take it's place, the key is, is the one taking the place any better than the previous version? well with some appointments like Bolton, Guilliani and Haspel to name but a few, they are not exactly upstanding none rogue background replacements are they? but then that applies to all politicians or officials at the top end, does it not. This is why the people need to step in and not only help, but change the mentality of operating within that environment. Then we look at the fact that the government has been shut down for 3 weeks and has anything changed on or within that circle of society, from the public perspective? yes the ones whose pay is affected it has, but to the general public itself, nothing has altered, so the question is what do they actually do, for us or the country? All this political intrigue and drama about this, that and the other in the government, it closes and nothing changed, why is that? Well, it changes nothing because they are not there to change anything, they can't even if they wished to, and this is what I have been telling you all, all along is it not, the government does not fix anything for we the people, we have to, and by we have to, means we must provide a platform and a structure to make that government work for and by the people, not by fake parties, because if you think for one second one party is better than the other, you haven't learnt enough of how things work, or blinkered by the program illusion one party will make a difference. They all come in with their sales pitch 12 months before the main election, then they do nothing, why? because they are show people, not real politicians, well it can't be worse than Bush they said and in came Obama burbling about change, yeah right Obama in 8 years and despite being the first black President, you did nothing for the people of your own color, never mind the rest of the country, increased the debt to your buddies at The Fed by $11T, and what benefits did the public see of that? nothing, and yet we are expected to pay that back? Thankfully The Trust stepped in and erased that debt of $20T. Politicians are sales people and we always buy it, throw a little hopium and a 4 year memory loop wipe in and repeat it again in next election, except the switch the narrative from one side to the other, like the wall narrative. So we have no government currently and nothing has changed, so those with common sense will have worked out by now, we never had government when it was open.

This is one idea that really should be passed around because the rot has to stop somewhere. Proposals to make politicians shoulder their share of the weight now that the Age of Entitlement is over: Scrap political pensions. Politicians can purchase their own retirement plan, just as most other working Australians are expected to do. Retired politicians (past, present & future) participate in Centrelink. A Politician collects a substantial salary while in office but should receive no salary when they're out of office. Terminated politicians under 70 can go get a job or apply for Centrelink unemployment benefits like ordinary Australians. Terminated politicians under 70 can negotiate with Centrelink like the rest of the Australian people. Funds already allocated to the Politicians retirement fund be returned immediately to Consolidated Revenue. This money is to be used to pay down debt they created which they expect us and our grandchildren to repay for them. Politicians will no longer vote themselves a pay raise. Politicians pay will rise by the lower of, either, the CPI or 3%. Politicians lose their privileged health care system and participate in the same health care system as ordinary Australian people... i.e. politicians either pay for private cover from their own funds or accept ordinary Medicare. Politicians must equally abide by all laws they impose on the Australian people. All contracts with past and present Politicians men/women are void effective 31/12/18. The Australian people did not agree to provide perks to Politicians, that burden was thrust upon them. Politicians devised all these contracts to benefit themselves. Serving in Parliament is an honour not a career. The Founding Fathers envisioned citizen legislators, so our politicians should serve their term(s), then go home and back to work. If each person contacts a minimum of twenty people, then it will only take three or so days for most Australians to receive the message. Don't you think it's time? THIS IS HOW YOU FIX Parliament and help bring fairness back into this country!

A number of new people joining the various platforms now 451 added to YT last month alone, even the hidden mewe has added 50 in last 2 weeks or perhaps I should say a fortnight now given some don't like Drake references, but the common theme I wish to bring up is the posts on FB and Mewe of new subscribers is, how they all now feel at home and the welcome they receive overwhelms them. This is a tribute not just for my vision of how our group should be, but how you all interact as well. We only have 3 admins and they are largely under employed as the page runs itself, which is how the admins like and wanted it to be. Trolls come and go quickly in our group, as their vibrational frequency sticks out like a sore thumb to our members, it's great to see. But with the increase in numbers coming from groups who by and large for them have not gone past 2014 in terms of knowledge, it is up to us all to teach them and bring them up to speed as best we can. The wayshowers being the change not asking for it.

The news piece of Manafort's links with Russians from 2005 literally defies belief, but this is the lengths of distraction clowns, agents and portal people apply now to distract moving forward and deflect crimes of others. Does anyone think for one moment that there is no one in politics that hasn't in some way liaise with a Russian? What is so wrong about meeting, talking or engaging Russians? Trump worked on business deals with Russians woo, that must mean he is colluding with the enemy then, all very school playground child like narrative that, don't play with that group they are all nasty, based on what? nothing, nothing concrete anyway. The staggering hypocrisy comes in when you realize Hillary, Comey, Obama, Mnuchin and Mueller and others were involved with Russia to sell off American assets, ignoring the fact it was not their assets to sell to begin with, or the fact Langley, along with NSA and The Pentagon operates through 5 eyes which funnily enough involves Russia and the KGB, oh my, CIA, KGB, GCHQ, Pine Gap and Mossad all working together, infact CIA and KGB have been working together for at least last 60 years, under the portal people and Hillary's mercenary army backed now by Pelosi, is that not the real definition of collusion? This has gone beyond stupid now, about as stupid as telling kids getting under a school desk will save you if a nuclear bomb goes off outside the school, have you not worked out by now, after 50+ years of being told the Russians or commies (except russians are commies are they, for those new listen to my series From Russia with love) are coming to get you, they would have arrived by now? The most advance military tech on the planet, no not America, but Russia and they haven't done anything with that yet? Time to think sensible me thinks.

let the past go, it serves us no purpose now, too much has been dealt with, too much has been exposed now, it's time to be with the vision of going forward, than going into the past, that past provides insights to protect and envision our future, but it needs not to be, a tool to mire ourselves down with.
